Mike, I will want to depose Rene further on this subject so I appreciate your recognition of our right to do this. First let's get the transcript prepared and her corrections filed. I wonder if they have video conference capabilities at the American University in Iraq? Or we do this when she is back in the States. I want it videotaped so I am not satisfied with simply doing it over the phone. Because the major issue here is Rene's credibility and she waived any attorney-client privilege by testifying to what she was told by her bankruptcy lawyer Mr. Dahlberg, I plan to take his deposition as well.

Re: Cause No. cv 08-372; Rene Ryman v. Regents of the University of California, et al.; in the United States District Court for the District of New Mexico.

Dear Mr. Hall and Mr. Fields:

I spoke with Rene Ryman today and have confirmed that the bankruptcy filing that was discussed in the deposition yesterday was in fact a type of personal bankruptcy. Please see the attached form which indicates the bankruptcy was filed as "Rene S. Ryman dba Ryman Consulting, Inc." I apologize for any confusion that might have occurred during yesterday's deposition. If you feel the need to follow-up with Rene in a short deposition regarding this matter, please let me know. I am sure we can accomplish such a small task over the telephone. Additionally, Rene will be correcting the transcript in this regard.

I also spoke to the bankruptcy trustee's office today. They described the bankruptcy as a "personal bankruptcy with business debts". Based on that conversation, I anticipate being appointed council on their behalf. I think we can continue to schedule the previously discussed depositions for the month of January without any issues. Rene's bankruptcy attorney indicated that more than 51% of the debts are business related which seems to confirm Ms. Ryman's understanding of the bankruptcy being primarily for her business.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Michael Howell
